A longtime Grand Valley resident, Rick Thurtle has been an active member of the Mesa County community for more than 15 years. The relationships he has built over the years have helped him greatly as a Colorado licensed Real Estate Broker Associate for RE/MAX Two Rivers Realty in Grand Junction. Whether it is residential, commercial or investment opportunities Rick Thurtle is a name area residents have grown to trust.

Hard working and experienced let Rick help you realize your real estate potential. From first time home buyers to longtime residents of the Western Slope Rick's client list covers all types of buyers and sellers in all age groups.

Rick is active with a long list of non-profit entities including the United Way of Mesa County, the Salvation Army, the Center for Independence and many others. He also spent more than two decades as a news anchor including 8 years at the local NBC affiliate.

Rick and his lovely wife Vicki live with their Golden Retriever, Fletcher. They enjoy sporting events of all kinds. They also love to ski, hike and fish across the Western Slope.
